St John's

The First Sunday After Trinity (Proper 7)

Collect

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Post Communion

Eternal Father, we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts: may our communion strengthen us in faith, build us up in hope, and make us grow in love; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please remember to pray for:

Sick - Rose Akbar, Kurt Barrington-Saunders, Oliver Butler, Jessica Daniels, Gary Moorey, David Price and John Youens.
RIP - Peter Turner.

Church Flowers - the flowers have been given by Marianne Wright remembering Norman's birthday and celebrating Finlay's birthday. Also in remembrance of Harry & Julia Walker.

Ordinary Time has started!

From earliest times the Church has gathered on Sundays to celebrate the good news of Jesus Christ.

Over time an annual cycle of Christian memory-making has also developed, which allows us to remember Jesus' life, death, and resurrection; to celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit; and to recall the ministry of the holy people who have spread the Christian faith over the centuries. Through the structuring of our Christian memory, the past is able to come into our present.

The liturgical (or Church) year is divided into several seasons. It begins with Advent, which looks forward to Christmas. The visit of the wise men to Jesus is remembered at Epiphany, after which there is a period of 'Ordinary Time'.

The six weeks of Lent prepare us for Easter, which celebrates Jesus's resurrection, leading forward to his Ascension and the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church at Pentecost. 'Ordinary Time' then resumes until the end of the year.

So-called 'ordinary time' is hardly boring! The Bible readings are carefully chosen so they relate to one another and themes often emerge upon which sermons are frequently based. The altar frontal, pulpit fall and clergy stoles are green as a sign of life and hope during this time.

Wendy Wall - New Curate

Please pray for Wendy and her husband Shane as they prepare to move into Church House Cottage towards the end of the month.

Please also pray for Wendy as she completes her theological studies and prepares for ordination on 2nd July at St Paul's Cathedral (3pm).

The service will be live streamed:

We have four tickets to attend the ordination service. Please let Matthew know (first come first served) if you wish to attend. Wendy has invited us to attend a post-ordination party in Clerkenwell.
